

Claims

1. Vehicle with an under-carriage (1) provided with crawler belts that by the foremost and hindmost end has a protruding part, and where the belts (2) are split into a foremost section that 5 is placed under the foremost protruding part, and a hindmost section that is placed under the hindmost protruding part, characterized in that at least one of the belt units is suspended vertically moveable, e.g. in a about a horizontal axis pivotable tilting joint (5).